INFORMATION CIRCULAR

To: Members of the Staff

From: The Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management

Subject: 1996 COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION FOR FRENCH INTERPRETERS

1. A competitive examination for French interpreters will be held on 6 and 7 June 1996 in New York, Geneva, Vienna and other locations according to the number and location of qualified candidates invited to take the examination and the availability of necessary technical equipment. The purpose of this examination is to establish a roster from which present and future vacancies for French interpreters will be filled.

2. The examination is open to staff members of the United Nations at the P-3 level and below who meet the eligibility requirements, as well as qualified external candidates. Staff members from subsidiary organs of the United Nations and staff members whose service is limited to a particular organ, fund or programme of the United Nations or special missions are considered external candidates for the purpose of this examination. Staff members who pass the examination and are selected for inclusion in the roster will be assigned to fill vacancies as they occur in the French Interpretation Section, Interpretation, Meetings and Documentation Division, Office of Conference and Support Services, of the United Nations Secretariat in New York. Assignments are subject to rotation and interpreters may thereafter be called upon to serve at other duty stations in Asia and Europe according to the needs of the Organization. Interpreters are expected to serve a MINIMUM OF FIVE YEARS in a language post. The assignment of staff members of the United Nations who are successful in the examination and are selected to fill vacancies will be subject to the conditions set out in paragraphs 9 and 10 below.

3. Staff members of the Secretariat applying for the examination must:

(a) Have French as their main language; 1/

(b) Have a perfect command of French and an excellent knowledge of English and, owing to the current special needs of the Organization, Russian. The Board of Examiners, appointed by the Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management, requires that candidates' claims to knowledge of official languages must be supported by relevant documentation in their official status files. For this purpose, staff members should either attach to their application a photocopy of a diploma or a certificate from a language school or a brief explanation of how they acquired their knowledge of the languages claimed. Staff members are advised to submit photocopies, not originals, of such documentation;

(c) Hold a degree or an equivalent qualification from a university or institution of equivalent status at which French is the language of instruction and have 200 days of experience as conference interpreters, or 200 days of work experience in the field of translation, editing, verbatim reporting or related fields. Alternatively, candidates must hold a university degree from a recognized school of interpretation.

4. The requirement for a university degree or its equivalent from a university or institution of equivalent status mentioned in paragraph 3 (c) above may be waived for staff members who, in the judgement of the Board of Examiners, have adequate post-secondary educational qualifications from a university or institution of equivalent status and adequate secondary educational qualifications from an establishment at which the principal language of instruction is French, in addition to five years of continuous service with the United Nations Secretariat by 31 December 1989.

5. All applications will be reviewed by the Board of Examiners. All applicants will be notified of the Board's decision in respect of their application. THE BOARD'S DECISIONS ARE FINAL.

6. The examination will consist of two parts:

(a) Simultaneous interpretation into French from recordings of four speeches delivered in English (approximately 5 to 10 minutes per recording);

(b) Simultaneous interpretation into French from recordings of four speeches delivered in Russian (approximately 5 to 10 minutes per recording).

7. On the basis of the results of this examination, the Board of Examiners will invite selected candidates to an interview, which is projected to take place in the second half of September 1996. The Board will interview the selected candidates to assess general culture, professional experience, knowledge of the United Nations and of current events, personality, willingness to serve at any duty station, adaptability to the prevailing working conditions in the French Interpretation Section and, in particular, ability to work as a member of a team. The interview is an integral part of the examination. Therefore, candidates who are invited for an interview should NOT assume that they will be offered an assignment.

8. On the basis of the overall results of the examination, the Board will recommend to the Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management the names of candidates who qualify for inclusion in the roster. All candidates admitted to the examination will be informed in writing of the Board's final recommendation in respect of their candidature. The Board's recommendations are NOT subject to appeal. The Board DOES NOT release individual scores/results.

9. Staff members selected to fill vacancies will be assigned as French interpreters for a trial period of two years. Staff members at the P-1 level or below will receive a special post allowance to the P-2 level. Staff members at the P-2 and P-3 levels will be assigned at their respective levels.

10. Staff members with a special post allowance to the P-2 level and those already at the P-2 level who complete the trial period successfully and are recommended by the Office of Conference Services and the Office of Human Resources Management will be promoted to the P-3 level. To be promoted to the P-3 level staff members must have completed the trial period to the complete satisfaction of the Interpretation Service. Staff members already at the P-3 level who complete the trial period successfully will be confirmed in their interpretation functions at the P-3 level. Staff members who do not complete the trial period successfully will be reassigned to posts at their previous levels and the special post allowance, if any, will be discontinued.

11. In order to service meetings of the Security Council or the General Assembly, interpreters are often called upon to work outside normal working hours, including weekends and holidays.

12. Staff members applying for the examination should complete the attached form and submit it, NOT LATER THAN 15 April 1996, to:

1996 Competitive Examination for French Interpreters
Specialist Services Division
Office of Human Resources Management
Room S-2575E
United Nations Secretariat
New York, N.Y. 10017
Fax No.: (1-212) 963-3683

13. In order to ensure receipt of all applications submitted by staff members from offices away from Headquarters, these staff members are requested to return their applications directly to the Specialist Services Division through the chief administrative officer or director of the United Nations information centre of their respective duty stations by 15 April 1996, the deadline for receipt of applications in the Specialist Services Division.

Notes

1/ "Main language" should be understood to be the language into which the candidate is best able to interpret. Candidates' claims to French as their main language must be supported by relevant documentation in their official status files.
